Mr. AND MRS. ALBERT F. HUNTT, of 1003 West Avenue, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their sister, Miss Saille washington and Easton, Pa., the former home of Mrs. Steinbrecher, Dances in Lexington, Spottswood Huntt, to William Knickla Allen, of Amherst, the wedding to take place the latter part of October.

Miss Huntt is the daughter of the late Major A. L. Huntt, and a granddaughter of Dr. Otis Manson. She is a well-known and popular member of Richmond society, and the event is of great interest here. On account of bereavement in the groom's family the wedding will be a very quiet one, and will take place at Mrs. Huntt's country place in Amherst.

Dances in Lexington.

Many of the younger set of Richmond society go every year to the hops at the V. M. I and Washington and Lee University. The opening hops of both colleges took place last week, with the usual number of charming girls from all over the State in attendance.

The Chimborazod "Ye" gave a delightful social last Friday night in the country place in Amherst.

TEMBER. 1999.

at 4 P. M. SHARP, the above described property.

The improvements thereon are a twostory frame dwelling, with modern conveniences, four or five tenant's houses, five siles, four large cow barns, stables, etc., all in good order. The lands are productive, in good condition, convenient to market and well adapted to dairy farming or trucking.

Those east of the Lakeside car line have already been laid off into streets, avenues, alleys and convenient building lots, and those on the west of said car line are high, slightly undulating and suitable for subdivision into villa sites and building lots.

The general location and quality of the lands, their proximity to and being in line with Richmond's most popular suburban development at Ginter Pack and its neighborhood, and the facilities for car service by the Lakeside car line and the Richmond and Chesapeake Railway combine to make the property specially desirable for safe and enterprising investment.

The said property will first be offered in four separate parcels, as the same are shown on the map of Redd & Bro. dated 27th May, 1007, and then as a whole, and the offer that yields the best price for the entire property will be accepted, and in case it is sold nearly sull be aggregate cash payment required from the entire property will be apportioned to the several parcels in accordance with the amounts bid therefor.
